

Organ Donor Leave

The Organ Donor Leave Act allows employees to take paid leave to donate an organ, bone marrow, blood, or blood platelets. To be eligible for leave, an employee must have been employed by the Seminary for at least six months.