Course description

This course is designed to provide students with an opportunity to become knowledgeable about the origins of the Wesleyan tradition and its expressions in the United Methodist Church. It explores the roots of the movement in the Anglican Church and the Wesleyan Revival of the 18th century, the history of the institutional and theological development of American Methodist/Evangelical United Brethren tradition through the 19th century.

Course objectives

By the end of the course, the student should have a better understanding of the following:

- the sermons of John Wesley
- the hymns of Charles Wesley
- the Methodist heritage and tradition
- the diverse streams of tradition that feed into the United Methodist Church
- the process and development of the Methodist/Wesleyan doctrinal heritage in the United States

Course Requirements

Required Writing

1. The student will be required to read and outline each of the sermons listed in the Outler/Heitzenrater Anthology. The sermons will become the theological foundation for future dialogue as we trace the tradition and the substance of the final paper. The outline should contain the following: sermon title; date preached; the main theological themes (e.g. grace, nature, sin, nature of humanity, nature of God, etc.); a succinct one or two sentence summary of the sermon; and a paraphrased outline of the main points and sub-points. Each sermon should take less than one typed (single spaced, 12 pt. type) page and uploaded via Turnitin on the Moodle page for this class. A sample outline is found below. (30% of final grade).

2. Paper #1- Using Heitzenrater as your source, write a 1500 word paper on the following: What was the mission of Methodism? What was the importance of conference, classes, and deeds to the connection of Methodism? How did these help to serve the mission of Methodism? In what ways did the mission change or reinforce Wesley's ecclesiology? (20% of final grade)

3. Paper #2- Write a 1500 paper researched from the primary documents in The Methodist Experience in America looking at the issues of race. Based on these documents what were some of the issues surrounding race in the 19th century American Methodism? Be sure to analyze the material as to its social as well as theological content and cite examples in support of your case. How did these issues influence Methodist theology, polity and ecclesiology? (20% of final grade)

4. Paper #3- Using Wesley's sermons and the Runyon text, write a 2500 word research paper on Wesley's Scripture way of salvation, the new creation, and the role sacraments play in this journey, i.e. the way of salvation and its relationship to sacramental practice. (30% of final grade).

Written assignments are to be submitted to Turnitin on Moodle.

1. They must be in a Microsoft Word or compatible format.
2. They must be submitted before midnight on the due date.
3. The file MUST EXACTLY be named using the following format:
StudentLastName_FirstInitial_40674_S16_Paper#
e.g. Bryant_B_40674_S16_Paper#1
StudentLastName_FirstInitial_40674_S16_Outlines#
e.g. Bryant_B_40674_S16_Outlines 1-5

Required Attendance and Participation

While no points will be given for attendance, due to the nature of the course's scheduling, a deduction in grade will be given for absences. Missing more than 6 hours of class will result in failure. Preparation and participation are also essential. (See, Student Life & Academic Handbook, 2009-2010, p. 16).

Disabilities Policies and Procedures

Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary is committed to providing equal access to its programs of graduate professional education for all qualified students with learning, physical, medical, or psychological disabilities. C-	210-239 words per outline	41-45% similarity to original sermon

The Witness of the Spirit: Discourse II

Sermon # 11

1767

Theological Theme: Assurance

Summary: The testimony of the Holy Spirit, that we are children of God, is both direct and indirect. The argument against the idea of direct testimony of the Holy Spirit to our spirit is contrary to Christian experience and to Scripture.

- I. No one who believes Scripture can doubt the importance of assurance.
 1. Two dangers: Denial leads to religious formality; Failure to understand it leads to enthusiasm.
 2. Part of the grand testimony God has given the Methodists.
- II. What is the witness of the Spirit?
 1. The testimony given by the Spirit of God to our spirit that we are children of God.
 2. An inward impression of the soul, whereby the Spirit of God immediately and directly witness to my spirit that I am a child of God.
 3. Spirit works upon the soul by immediate influence that one is forgiven.
 4. The testimony of the Spirit is acknowledged by all [disputing] parties.
 5. No real testimony of the Spirit without fruit of the Spirit.
 6. Point in question is direct testimony of the Spirit.
- III. There is direct testimony of the Spirit.
 1. When our spirit is conscious of the fruits of the Spirit, it infers that we are children of God.
 2. Ye have received the Spirit of Adoption, whereby we cry Abba, Father.
 3. The testimony of the Spirit of God must be antecedent to testimony of our own spirit.
 4. Not only to children of God, but to all who are convinced of sin.
 5. Everyone who denies the existence of such [direct] testimony, denies justification by faith.
 6. Experience of the children of the world confirms the experience of the children of God.
- IV. Answers to objections
 1. This doctrine is founded on Scripture, therefore experience confirms it.
 2. A scriptural doctrine is no worse, though men abuse it to their own destruction.
 3. A fruit of the Spirit is the witness of the Spirit.
 4. Witness of the Spirit is important to profession of faith
 5. Spiritual gifts are not the same as bearing witness.
 6. Twofold witness of the Spirit guards against delusion.
 7. We can be tried to the point of failure to keep our filial confidence in God without the direct witness of the Spirit.
 8. None of the main objections weakens the evidence that the Spirit of God both directly and indirectly testifies that we are children of God.
