Course Description

Welcome to History II. This course will introduce you to the relatively recent history of Christianity, from the late Middle Ages (beginning around 1500) to the present time. In the last 500 years, Christianity has developed a wide range of expressions, most of which still exist today. This course will help you better understand how these varied traditions took shape and how they, in turn, have shaped modern church and society. Special attention will be given to the particular contexts in which Christian thought and practice have developed.

Learning Outcomes

- To appreciate the long history of the Church and its many stories.
- To interpret the dynamics of different times and places.
- To analyze why things happened as they did (and now are as they are);
- To recognize historical trends (and to identify them when they are repeated).
- To interpret the present in light of the past, noting both similarities and differences.
- To articulate aspects of Christian history as they are relevant to particular contemporary contexts, and to interpret those aspects for lay audiences.
- To see “the Church” in all its diversity (of time, place, culture, sub-culture, rank, ordination status, ethnicity, race, gender, class, and so on).
- To employ the best resources from the past to lead the church of the future.
- To be enriched by the stories of those who have gone before.
- To develop broader empathy for people (historical or contemporary) in circumstances that are unfamiliar to us.
- To exercise our abilities to think critically and communicate clearly.

Weekly Schedule

All work for this course will be done asynchronously. That is, there is no one time during the week when students must log on. Instead, there are two days a week (Mondays and Thursdays) when assignments are due, but those assignments can be done at any time throughout the week.

The following tasks should be completed no later than 5 p.m. CST on the date listed on the syllabus for each topic: Doing the assigned reading, listening to the lecture, taking the quiz, and posting to the discussion forum. Discussion questions will be provided on the discussion forum.

Assignments & Grading

Quizzes (20%)

For each topic, students will take a quiz on Moodle over the main points of the reading(s) and any other assigned materials. Each quiz contains five multiple choice or true/false questions and must be completed within ten minutes. At the end of the ten minutes, the quiz will be submitted with the answers that have been entered. It is open-book and open-note, but you will not be able to complete it successfully if you have not done the reading before beginning the quiz. Only one attempt is allowed. Quizzes are due by 5 p.m. CST on the date listed on the syllabus for that topic. Moodle will be programmed to disallow access to the quiz at that time, so please plan accordingly. The two lowest quiz scores will be dropped.

Participation (20 %)

In order to fully engage this course, it is important that you actively participate so that your classmates can learn from you and you from them. The discussion forum on Moodle will be the main avenue for this engagement. The minimum expectation for participation in the online discussion forum is one substantial post per topic (approximately 300 words). All posts should engage the previous posts of other students (unless, of course, you post first) and should not be constructed as stand-alone reports. Posts are due at 5 p.m. CST on the date listed for the topics. Quantity and quality will both be considered when assigning a participation grade.

Essay #1 (20%)

One 5-7 page essay will be due at 5 p.m. CST on February 27, responding to a question on the Reformation. Details, guidelines and rubrics for all essays will be posted on Moodle. Please see also the Style Sheet posted on Moodle for an overview of citations and other stylistic issues.

Essay #2 (20%)

One 5-7 page essay will be due at 5 p.m. CST on April 13, responding to a question on the 17th-19th centuries.

Essay #3 (20%)

One 5-7 page essay will be due at 5 p.m. CST on May 12, responding to a question on 20th century Christianity.

Final grades for the course are determined by the following scale:

A: 100-93%	C: 73-77%
A-: 90-92%	C-: 70-72%
B+: 88-89%	D+: 68-69%
B: 83-87%	D: 63-67%
B-: 80-82%	D-: 60-62%
C+: 78-79%	F: 59% and below

Policies and Procedures

1. Careful language is especially important in an online course. Because online interactions play out differently than face-to-face interactions, some extra guidelines for discussion will be helpful:
 - In an online discussion, you have fewer words with which to make your point. This makes your reflection prior to posting and your choice of words all the more important. Everyone benefits from thoughtful discussion posts, so please take the time to express yourself clearly, and please make sure that your post contributes to the flow of discussion. Also, because your spelling and grammar convey the seriousness that you bring to the task, please proof-read your posts before submitting them.
 - The online discussion is the main collaborative activity of the course, so your classmates are depending on you, and you on them. Please participate regularly, on schedule, and in response to the question and to previous postings.
 - Without the non-verbal clues we have when we talk with someone face-to-face, comments can be misinterpreted. Please make sure your posts are clear, especially when you are making a contentious statement. We will tackle difficult topics, and we will disagree, but we must do this in a respectful and constructive manner.

2. Late papers and other assignments will be accepted without penalty only in severe and documented situations. Please plan your work so that an acute emergency (e.g. brief illness, computer problems, pastoral emergency) does not interfere with submitting your work on time. Unexcused late assignments will be docked a full letter grade (i.e., 10 percentage points) for every day they are late. Any portion of a day late counts as a full day, so if a paper is due at 5 p.m. and you submit it at 5.30 p.m., your grade will be docked by one full letter grade (e.g., 90% becomes 80%). Quizzes must be completed according to schedule as Moodle is programmed to make them unavailable after the due date. Any quizzes not taken on time will receive a score of zero.

3. Regarding plagiarism, please familiarize yourself with Garrett-Evangelical policies as found in the Academic Handbook. It is especially important to make sure you understand what constitutes plagiarism so that you do not inadvertently violate the policy. All written work will undergo an online plagiarism check. A violation of the plagiarism policy will result in a grade of zero for that assignment and disciplinary action in consultation with the Academic Dean.

4. For students with special needs or disabilities, Garrett-Evangelical is committed to providing a quality theological education and will provide reasonable accommodations for documented conditions. Students requiring specific assistance such as classroom changes, alternative ways of notetaking, different classroom procedures, or alternative testing formats are urged to request the appropriate accommodations from the director of academic studies/registrar. The director of academic studies/registrar can advise students on other support services and resources, for example, diagnostic testing. Students must complete a request for accommodations using the form available from the director of academic studies/registrar or through MyGETS documenting their condition(s) through appropriate verification methods. Accommodation(s) cannot be retroactive. Accommodation(s) begins only after documentation is received and reasonable time for accommodation development has been allowed.

Overview of Garrett-wide Academic Policies

All students are required to abide by the academic policies detailed in the Academic Handbook for the current academic year. The following policies are of particular importance to the successful completion of one's coursework:

Writing:

- Academic integrity and plagiarism: (See 19-20 Handbook, 12, 78-83) All professors are required to respond to all suspected incidents of academic dishonesty, especially plagiarism. Repeated incidents of plagiarism or academic dishonesty may result in dismissal from the school.
- Writing and citations: The Turabian Manual for Writers and the Chicago Manual of Style footnote/bibliography format provide the standard formats for all introductory courses. Basic information on these formats is available online here. In advanced courses an instructor may require another style guide appropriate to the discipline (such as APA). (19-20 Handbook, 84)
- Writing Support: The Writing Center at Garrett-Evangelical offers programs to support all students' theological research and writing. See <https://www.garrett.edu/studentlife/student-services> "Writing Center" for more detailed information.

Attendance and Class Participation:

- Inclusivity/Diversity: The basic commitments of the seminary to mutual love and searching for the truth in Christ lead to a principle that in the classroom and in course assignments, persons are always to be respected and ideas are to be freely discussed.... All participants in the teaching-learning process have an obligation to honor and respect varying perspectives on relevant issues.

(See 19-20 Handbook, 9)

- Attendance and lateness policies: Attendance is required. Students who miss more than 20% of the class sessions (e.g., more than 2 classes in the weekly schedule, a proportionate amount for other class formats) should not expect to pass the class. (19-20 Handbook, 19)
- Some faculty may limit on the usage of electronic devices such as cell phones during class. At the least, all cell phones should be silenced during the whole of a class session.

Academic Accommodations:

- Student accommodations for documented conditions should be developed and requested before the beginning of the semester. See the Accessibility, Special Needs, and Disabilities policy and process set out in the Academic Handbook (19-20 Handbook, 12). Such accommodations are developed in consultation with the Registrar.
- Extensions: For Masters students, extensions, if granted, are normally for four weeks following the last day of class in spring and fall semesters or the final due date for coursework for January and summer terms. Extensions may not exceed three months following the end of the term. (19-20 Handbook, 20)
